

It is with a heavy heart and great sadness that would like to share the passing of their colleague and dear friend

Vitol

Anna GREGORY-SELLERS

and present its deepest sympathy, condolences and support to her husband and family.

Anna passed away peacefully on January 31, 2011, surrounded by her beloved husband and family after having courageously battled her illness for many years.

She will be remembered for her extraordinary strength that touched all who knew her and as a greatly appreciated colleague.

Anna will be dearly missed by all.
