

Richard Dale TROXEL

Sept. 11th 1954 – July 5th 2011

Every so often, the Lord takes an irreplaceable person to Heaven that just makes you wonder if Saint Peter himself needed a pianist with a high fun factor to shake things up a bit. He certainly found the best in Richard Dale Troxel, 56, a dedicated husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, colleague, and musician who began enjoying his eternal reward July 5th, 2011, after a heroic battle with cancer.

Rick was an inspiration to all who crossed his path. His involvement in his family, his music and the community was a great part of his strength. His talent and willingness to entertain people always left them asking, «Who is that Piano Man?» He had an unrelenting ability to make smiles out of any situation, especially the tough ones. Let us celebrate Rick's life together, and never forget the endless joy he brought to this world.

A public farewell service will be held to honour his legacy at:

Emmanuel Church, 3, Rue de Monthoux, 1201 Geneva

Saturday, 23rd of July 2011 at 3:00pm.

Please join us for a celebration of his life at Plage du Vengeron following the service.

Rick was blessed with the ability to appreciate all the good things in his life. He was fond of saying, «I'm the luckiest guy I know.» His love and friendship will be sorely missed by all.
